Addressing the need for internationalisation in Higher Education through an undergraduate course: Global Communication in English
Richardson, Jane; Guion Akdağ, Emma

Publication date: 2016

Document Version
Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Link to publication in Heriot-Watt University Research Portal

Citation for published version (APA):
Addressing the need for internationalisation in Higher Education through an undergraduate course:

Global Communication in English

Founded in 1821, Heriot-Watt is a leader in ideas and solutions. With campuses and students across the entire globe we span the world, delivering innovation and educational excellence in business, engineering, design, the physical, social and life sciences, and translation, interpreting and intercultural studies.

Global thinking, worldwide influence

Strategic Plan 2013-18: Internationalisation

(Some of) Heriot-Watt’s University’s priorities are to:
- continue to grow rapidly all streams of international activity;
- ensure that Heriot-Watt University qualifications are recognised and respected internationally, providing entry to jobs worldwide;
- support the development of Heriot-Watt as an international university with Scottish roots.

Global Communication in English

This course aims to:
- introduce students to the study of the development and use of English throughout the world;
- prepare students for cross campus transfers Go Global and future employment;
- communicate in English in an effective, informed and inclusive way in multi-cultural environments.

(Some of the) Learning Outcomes:
- demonstrate an awareness of the historical, political and social factors related to the spread of English;
- apply a sociolinguistic approach, including discourse analysis, to a variety of English;
- apply an ethnographic approach to their own and others’ use of English;
- contribute effectively in group work by showing an awareness of roles and responsibilities and taking the lead when appropriate.

Best Practice for Assessment:

Methods of assessment on Global Communication in English:
- e-portfolios – students collect and share their research on Global Englishes and intercultural communication on linoit.com
- role play – students record dialogues and analyse and evaluate interaction
- group tasks – students participate in group tasks and analyse the group’s performance using criteria that they have identified as important for intercultural communication
- poster presentations – students prepare an academic poster to capture key elements of their learning

References:

Jane Richardson
j.richardson@hw.ac.uk
Emma Guion Akdağ
e.guion_akdag@hw.ac.uk

Department of Languages and Intercultural Studies
School of Management and Languages Heriot-Watt University
Edinburgh Campus, Edinburgh, Scotland, EH14 4AS